

I love to listen

I think you're a very interesting person, and I love to listen to all that you tell Me! You're important to Me, and I like hearing what has happened in your day and what you think about things.

You can tell Me the things that make you happy, and even the ones that make you sad. If something happened that you don't understand or that you're worried about, tell Me about it. I won't get impatient. I always have the time to listen to you.

Let Me hear what you have to say! Then, if you're quiet and you listen, you might hear My answer in your heart.

*When I have something to say,
I can tell it to Jesus any day.*
