

The right choices

Sometimes it's hard to make the right choice when you prefer doing something different. But it's always best to make the choice that you know in your heart to be the better choice.

When you choose to do good—things to be loving and kind, to obey your parents or teacher, to do your best in all that you do—these are the choices that make me and others happy.

And you'll find that making others glad fills your heart with joy, too.

*When I choose to do what is right,
My heart feels happy and light.*
