

With God's Help

Though I am small, with God's help I can do many things. The Bible says, "Be an example to show the believers how they should live. Show them with your words, with the way you live, with your love, with your faith, and with your pure life."¹

Even though I am young and small, with God's help I can be an example to others of His love and goodness.

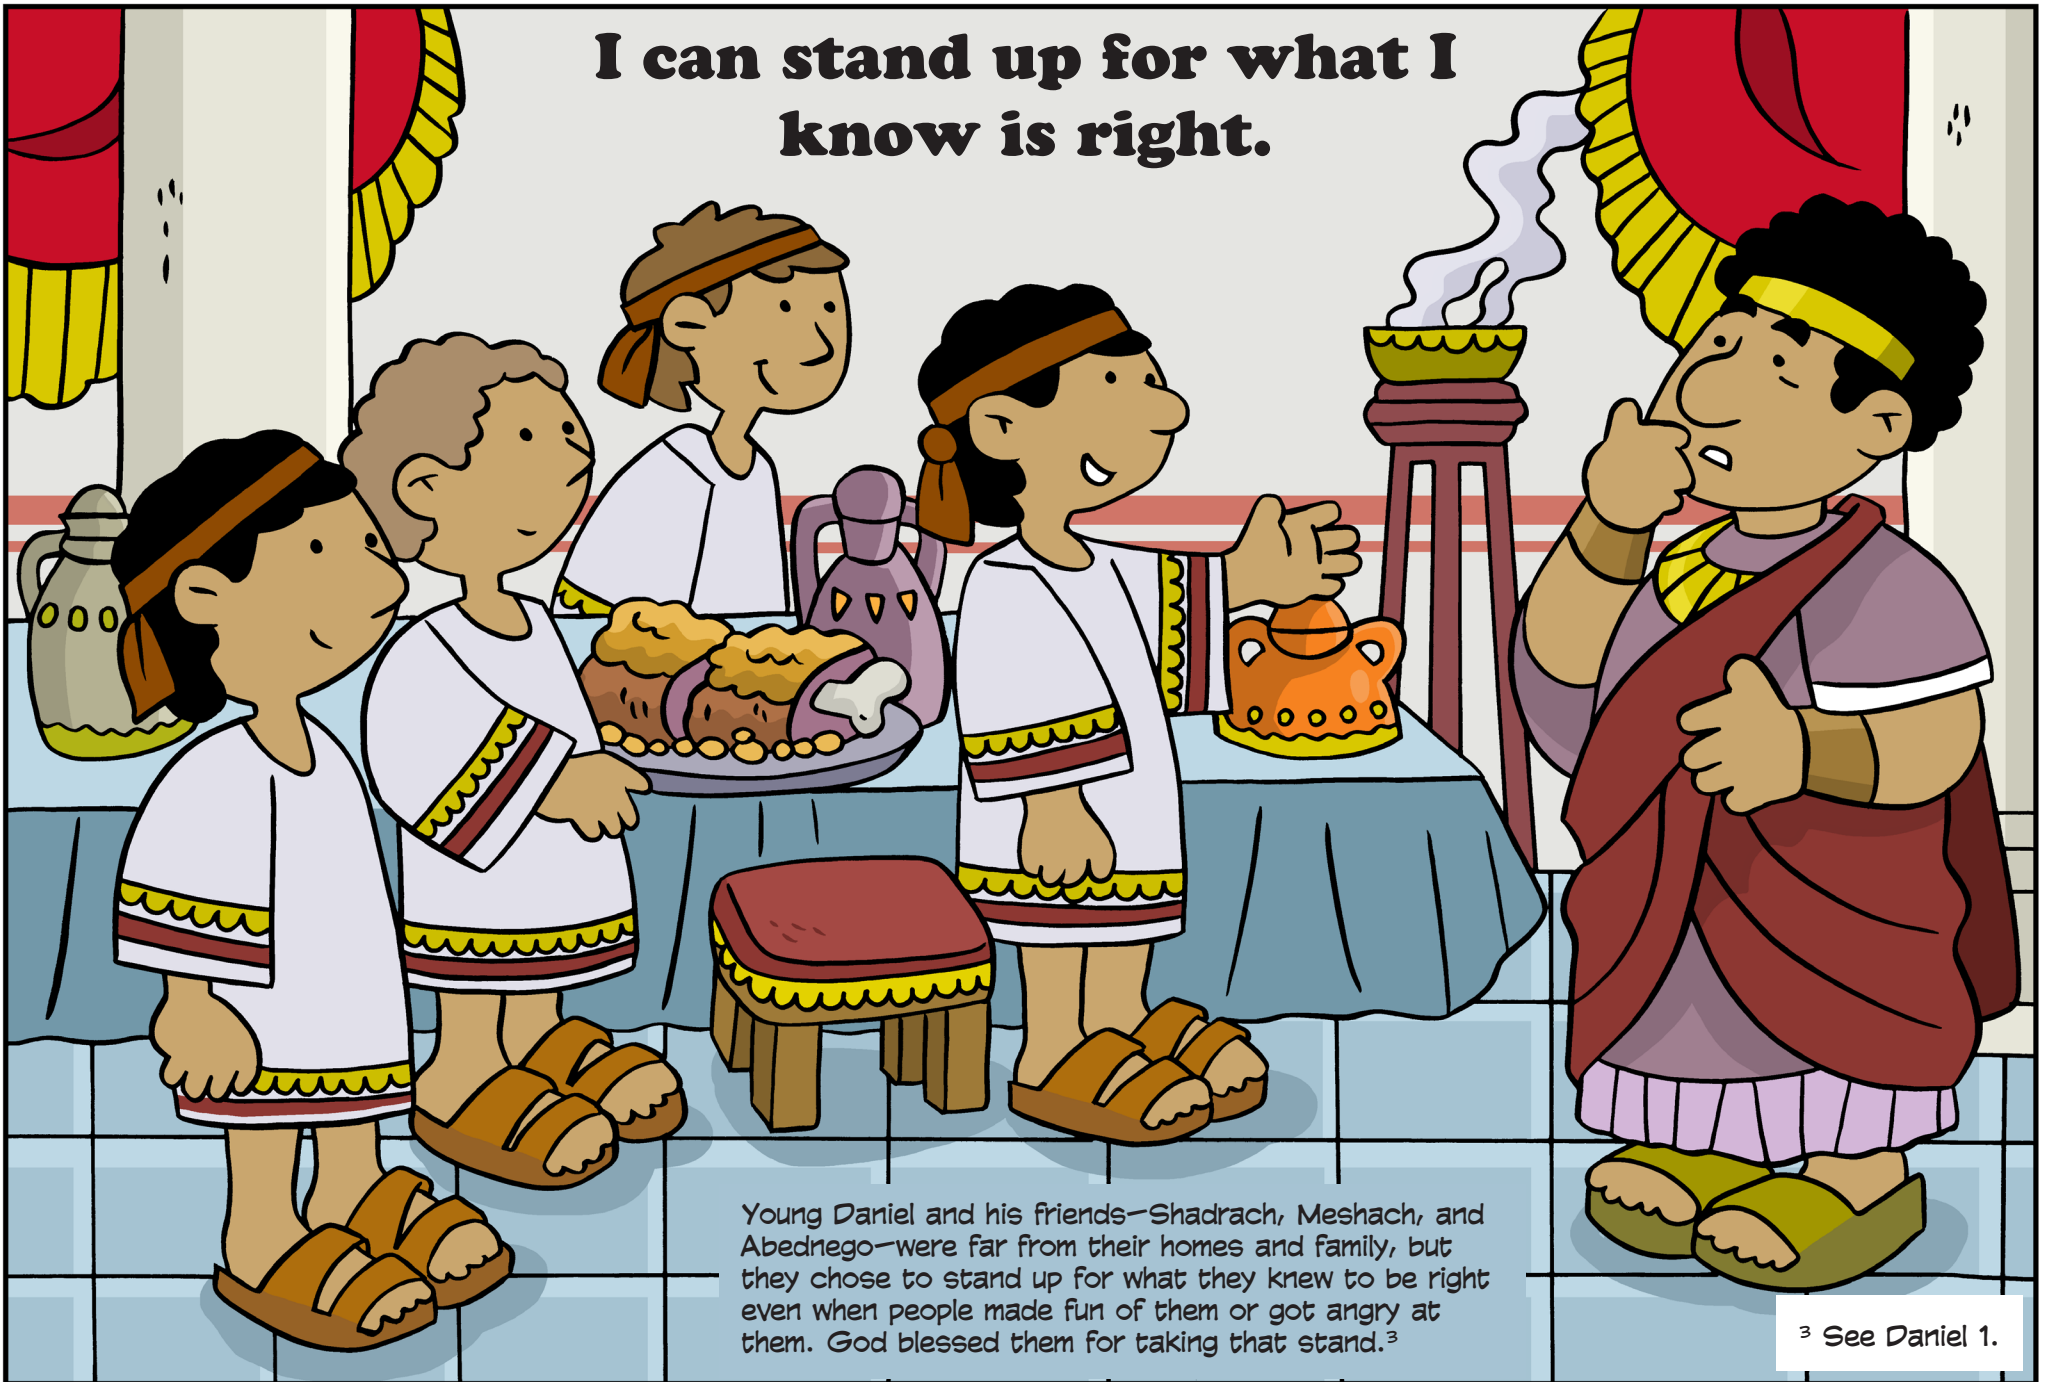

I can be brave.

David was a young boy who cared for his family's sheep. When a lion tried to attack the sheep, God helped David keep the sheep safe.²

² See 1 Samuel 17:34-37.

I can stand up for what I know is right.

Young Daniel and his friends—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—were far from their homes and family, but they chose to stand up for what they knew to be right even when people made fun of them or got angry at them. God blessed them for taking that stand.³

³ See Daniel 1.

I can show integrity.

Joseph was a boy when he was taken away from his family to live in Egypt. He was diligent and honest in his work, and this made him stand out and be trusted above many others. Because of that, he was eventually given an important position in Egypt that helped save many people.⁴

⁴ See Genesis 37, 39-41.

I can remind others of Jesus' greatness and power.

A young girl was a servant in an important man's house. When she heard the man was sick, she told his wife about God's power to heal and said the prophet Elisha could help. When the man went to the prophet Elisha and then followed what God told him to do, he was healed.⁵

⁵ See 2 Kings 5.

I can listen to God's voice.

Samuel was a young boy living in the house of God. One night he heard a voice calling to him—it was the voice of God. Samuel listened to God's message and spoke the words as God instructed. When he grew up, Samuel became a godly and just judge to his people.⁶

⁶ See 1 Samuel 3.

"Christ is the one who gives me the strength I need to do whatever I must do,"⁷ so I know that God will be by my side to help me no matter what the challenge or the obstacle. He will always be there to help me and give me the courage that I need!
