

I want to be your personal Friend. I want to enjoy the good times with you. And when life is difficult, I want to listen to you talk about it and help you to find solutions. I'm your pal, your buddy, your Friend.

I promise that I'll be a Friend you can always count on!

I came that you may have life, and have it more fully. (John 10:10, KJV, paraphrased)

CALL ME FRIEND

Allow Me to introduce Myself.

My name is Jesus.

I came into the world and joined My parents in not such great conditions: born in a barn (Luke 2:7),

CALL ME FRIEND

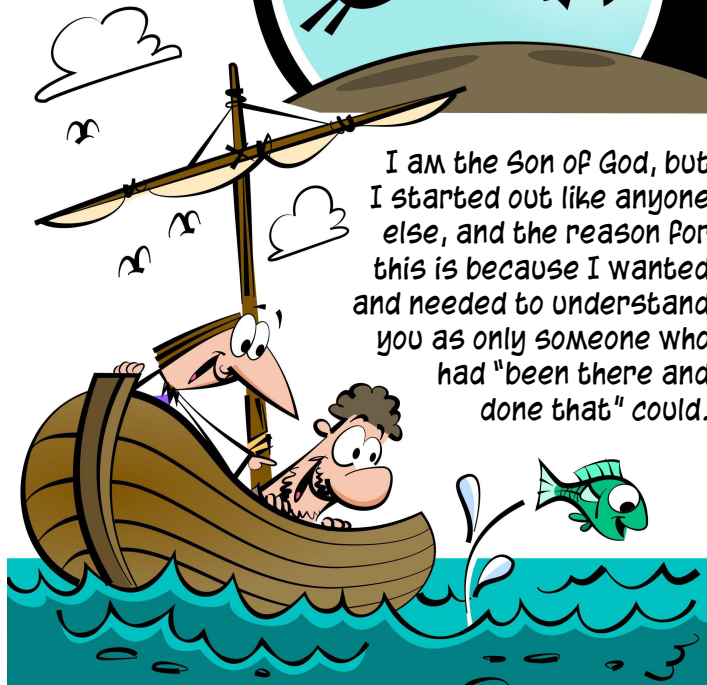

Allow Me to introduce Myself.

My name is Jesus.

I came into the world and joined My parents in not such great conditions: born in a barn (Luke 2:7),

Fled for My life soon afterwards (Matthew 2:13), and then finally settled down to a somewhat normal life—at least till I was older.

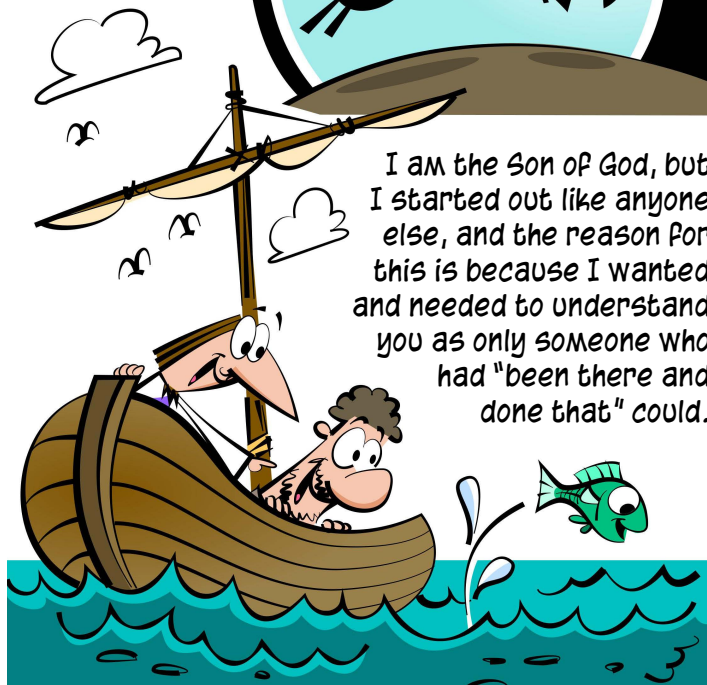

I am the Son of God, but I started out like anyone else, and the reason for this is because I wanted and needed to understand you as only someone who had "been there and done that" could.

Don't think of Me as someone who is floating high up on a cloud. Think of Me as a friend, one you can call by My name "Jesus." Then talk to Me as you would talk to one of your friends.
