

Bookend Prayers with Praise

Pray for Schooling

A bookend is often added to both ends of a row of books to give support to the books.

You can support your prayers by adding a “bookend” of praise at the beginning and at the end of your prayer. This shows you have faith that God will answer in the way He knows is best. When you do this, you are guaranteed results.

THANK YOU, JESUS, THAT WE CAN LEARN ABOUT THE PARTS OF SPEECH.

PLEASE HELP US UNDERSTAND ALL WE ARE BEING TAUGHT.

THANK YOU FOR OUR HELPFUL TEACHER!

PRAISE BOOKEND

Pray for your schooling:

For diligence in your times of study.

For concentration during school time.

For perseverance and progress in any subjects you need help in learning.

For your teachers' inspiration, encouragement, and teaching abilities.

For school supplies.

OH, THAT'S SOMETHING THE CHILDREN WILL ENJOY!

I AM NOT GOING TO GIVE UP!

Here are two Bible promises you can claim when praying for your schooling, especially for a subject that you find difficult:

Don't be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God (Philippians 4:6 NIV).

I can do all things through him who gives me strength (Philippians 4:13 NIV).
