

Jesus walks on the sea

(John 6:16–21)

When it was evening, the disciples of Jesus went to the shore, where they climbed into a boat to cross over to Capernaum. It was dark, and Jesus still had not come to join them.

A strong wind began to blow, which made the waves very difficult for their boat to travel through. When the disciples had rowed about three or four miles, they saw a man walking on the sea, coming toward the boat. The disciples were terrified. But it was Jesus, and He said to them, “It’s Me. Don’t be afraid.”

The disciples let Jesus into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land that they were headed for.

This story is also found in Matthew 14:22–33.
