

It's fun to be with others
Who enjoy the things I do.
We have our common interests
That give us a special glue.

Please help me to be friendly
When another comes along
Who presents another interest
But still wants to belong.

"A man who has friends must himself be friendly" (Proverbs 18:24 NKJV).

I know that when I'm open,
To hear another's view,
I can learn from their opinion
Even when it's something new.

I want to be considerate
Of another's thought or finding.
I ask You for acceptance
And to be more understanding.

"Let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak" (James 1:19 ESV).
