

The Gift of the Holy Spirit

(Acts 1:2–8 and 2:1–4)

Jesus visited with His disciples during the first forty days after His resurrection and taught them more about the kingdom of God.

Before Jesus returned to heaven, He told them to wait together in Jerusalem to be baptized with His Holy Spirit.

He promised the disciples that with the gift of the Holy Spirit they would receive great power to witness about Him to people all over the world.

Fifty days after Jesus' resurrection, on the day of Pentecost, Jesus' followers were waiting together in one place as Jesus had asked them to. Suddenly, there was a sound like a mighty wind that filled the house where they were gathered. There appeared what looked like tongues of fire that settled over each one of them, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages that His Spirit spoke through them.

The Gift of the Holy Spirit

(Acts 1:2–8 and 2:1–4)

Jesus visited with His disciples during the first forty days after His resurrection and taught them more about the kingdom of God.

Before Jesus returned to heaven, He told them to wait together in Jerusalem to be baptized with His Holy Spirit.

He promised the disciples that with the gift of the Holy Spirit they would receive great power to witness about Him to people all over the world.

Fifty days after Jesus' resurrection, on the day of Pentecost, Jesus' followers were waiting together in one place as Jesus had asked them to. Suddenly, there was a sound like a mighty wind that filled the house where they were gathered. There appeared what looked like tongues of fire that settled over each one of them, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages that His Spirit spoke through them.