

"In the beginning
was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."¹

Faith-filled Models from the Old Testament:

John the Beloved

John is thought to have been the youngest of the twelve disciples that Jesus trained. He is often referred to as John the Beloved.

God worked through John to record many of Jesus' teachings in the Gospel of John.

You too can learn from Jesus by studying the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), which include many accounts about Jesus' life and teachings.

John not only recorded the Gospel of John, he also wrote three letters: 1st, 2nd, and 3rd John.

John wrote the book of Revelation, which is a fascinating record of the words and visions that Jesus gave to him.

In Revelation (verses 21:1–7, 10–27, and 22:1–5) you can read about the visions Jesus gave John about the fantastic future for all of us who have accepted Jesus' gift of salvation.