

The Boy Samuel

Based on 1 Samuel 1.

Long ago in Israel there was a married woman by the name of Hannah who had no children. One time while praying at the temple, Hannah told God that if He gave her a son, she would raise her son to serve Him. God answered Hannah's prayers by giving her and her husband a baby boy whom they named Samuel.

As promised, Hannah raised Samuel to love and serve God. When Samuel was old enough, she took him to the temple for training. She explained to Eli, the priest, "I was the woman who you saw years ago praying at the temple for a son. The Lord God has answered my prayers, and my husband and I wish for you to train Samuel to serve God."

Samuel grew up to become a great prophet of God. You can read another inspiring story about young Samuel in 1 Samuel, chapter 3.

The Boy Samuel

Based on 1 Samuel 1.

Long ago in Israel there was a married woman by the name of Hannah who had no children. One time while praying at the temple, Hannah told God that if He gave her a son, she would raise her son to serve Him. God answered Hannah's prayers by giving her and her husband a baby boy whom they named Samuel.

As promised, Hannah raised Samuel to love and serve God. When Samuel was old enough, she took him to the temple for training. She explained to Eli, the priest, "I was the woman who you saw years ago praying at the temple for a son. The Lord God has answered my prayers, and my husband and I wish for you to train Samuel to serve God."

Samuel grew up to become a great prophet of God. You can read another inspiring story about young Samuel in 1 Samuel, chapter 3.