

CHARACTER TRAITS OF SUPER STUDENTS

A DESIRE TO

LEARN

CAPITALIZING ON YOUR STRENGTHS, SKILLS,
GIFTS AND INTERESTS; SHORING UP YOUR WEAK SPOTS

CURIOSITY

ASKING QUESTIONS

CREATIVITY

BALANCE

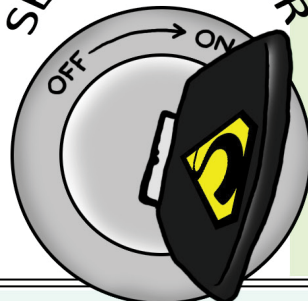

TAKING

INITIATIVE

BEING A

SELF-STARTER

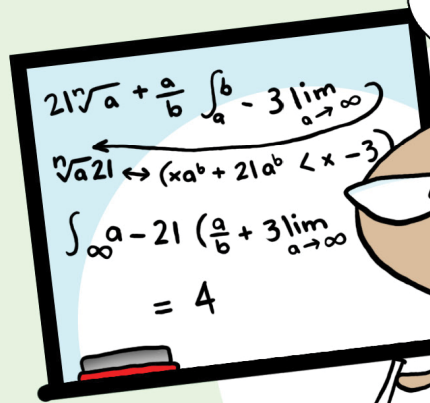

DISCIPLINE

HAVING THE COURAGE TO TRY SOMETHING

NEW

... REGARDLESS OF
WHETHER YOU THINK
YOU'LL BE GOOD OR BAD AT IT.

STAYING POSITIVE AND UPBEAT
EVEN WHEN MISTAKES ARE MADE
ALONG THE WAY

Oops! That's not right! I'd better try it again.

THINK: ABOUT IT

The traits listed on these pages will increase your power to study, and have fun while doing so!

HUMILITY

HARD SUBJECT? NOT A PROBLEM!

The characteristics listed here will help you make progress on even the most difficult subjects. Pick one or two to try out the next time you encounter a challenging subject at school.

- ☒ Knowing how to set goals and prioritize.
- ☒ Teaching others what you know; giving back to others.
- ☒ Teamwork.
- ☒ Understanding that learning never ends. You should be learning something new throughout your life.
- ☒ Giving back and teaching others. Using the skills and information you've acquired to help or benefit others.
- ☒ Using your time wisely.
- ☒ Willingness to work hard.

S&S link: Character Building: Personal Responsibility: Learning and Study Skills-2b

Contributed by T.M., based on the writings of Maria Fontaine. Illustrations by Alvi.

Copyright © 2010 by The Family International