

Lessons from Jesus

Giving to Others

Based on Matthew 6:2–4 and Luke 6:38.

While Jesus was teaching His disciples, He told them: “When you give to the poor, don’t sound a trumpet before you or brag about what you are doing to attract attention as some hypocrites do so that others will watch and praise them for their giving.

“When you give, it’s not necessary to broadcast what you are doing. However, your Father in heaven will see what you do, and He will reward you.”

He also told them: “Give to others, and God will give to you. Indeed, you will receive back more than you can hold. He will give to you according to how you give to others.”

Lessons from Jesus

Giving to Others

Based on Matthew 6:2–4 and Luke 6:38.

While Jesus was teaching His disciples, He told them: “When you give to the poor, don’t sound a trumpet before you or brag about what you are doing to attract attention as some hypocrites do so that others will watch and praise them for their giving.

“When you give, it’s not necessary to broadcast what you are doing. However, your Father in heaven will see what you do, and He will reward you.”

He also told them: “Give to others, and God will give to you. Indeed, you will receive back more than you can hold. He will give to you according to how you give to others.”